GOSPEL: St. John 6:1-15

Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick. Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. The Jewish feast of Passover was near. When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said the Philip, "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" He said this is to test him, "Two hundred days' wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little. One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Jesus said, "Have the people recline." Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted." So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat. When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world." Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone.

FAITH FORMATION CONFERENCE (formerly Catechetical Conference), August 20-21, at the Tulsa Renaissance Hotel and Convention Center. Registration is now open. Details and registration are available at www.dioceseoftulsa.org/faith-formation-conference. This year's theme: "Reason, Science and Divine Revelation", presented by speakers: Fr. Robert Spitzer (live online), Dr. Stacy Trasancos, Bishop Daniel Mueggenborg and Prof. Ferdinand Casanova. As in the past, sessions will be offered in Spanish. A hybrid registration is $25 for in person and online access to keynotes. An online registration is $10 for access to keynote talks after the conference is over. The main day of the conference is Saturday, August 21, from 8:30am-5pm. Orientation for newly hired or volunteer leaders of parish ministries (CRE, DRE, RCIA, etc.) is Friday, August 20, from 4-6pm. Those who assumed leadership within the past 2 years are encouraged to attend. Register for the orientation when registering for the conference. A special reception for rural participants will be held 6-8pm, Friday, August 20 at the hotel. A block of rooms has been reserved for the faithful coming in from rural parishes. Those interested in more information regarding the rooms for members of rural parishes should call the Office of Religious Formation at 918-307-4904. The conference will also feature many vendors and organizations from our community. We look forward to seeing you there!

PRAYER FOR THE FIRST WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

I thank You, Lord, for the comfort of Your presence even in times of loneliness, You are my hope and my confidence, You have been my rock and my fortress since my youth! I thank You for having given me a family and for having blessed me with a long life. I thank You for moments of joy and difficulty, for the dreams that have already come true in my life and for those that are still ahead of me. I thank You for this time of renewed fruitfulness to which You call me. Increase, O Lord, my faith, make me a channel of your peace, teach me to embrace those who suffer more than me, to never stop dreaming and to tell of your wonders to new generations. Protect and guide Pope Francis and the Church, that the light of the Gospel might reach the ends of the earth. Send Your Spirit, O Lord, to renew the world, that the storm of the pandemic might be calmed, the poor consoled and wars ended. Sustain me in weakness and help me to live life to the full in each moment that You give me, in the certainty that you are with me every day, even until the end of the age.
Amen
